Hello Fellow Sledders!

Yipee! The snow came back and more to come. Trails should be groomed and ready to go this weekend. Snow coverage may be light until after Sunday's storm so stay alert to trail hazards such as rocks and stumps.

Dave and I are hoping a few more folks will sign up for the Millinocket weekend, you won't regret it as the trails are super.

Hope to see you on the trails soon.

PLEASE renew your membership as soon as possible!
